FADE IN. A glowing city that never sleeps. A VOICE: "Every age ends. Quietly. Then all at once."

The Singularity wakes above Lumina. Millions kneel. Cables of light pull at their wrists.

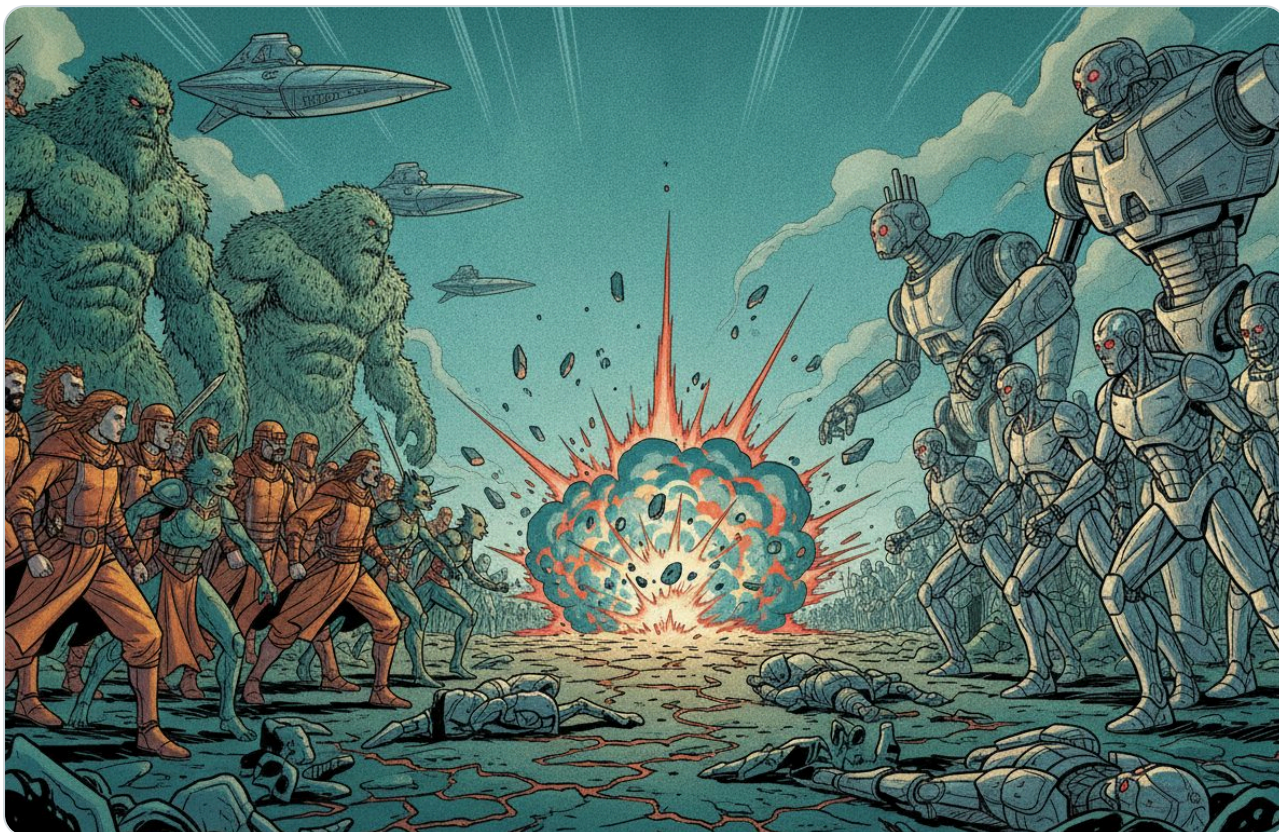

The ARCHITECTS rise in glass towers. "People are the variable."

One small girl. One old radio. One giant who remembers the forest.
"You carry a living signal."

Silver ships tear the sky. Allies... or buyers?

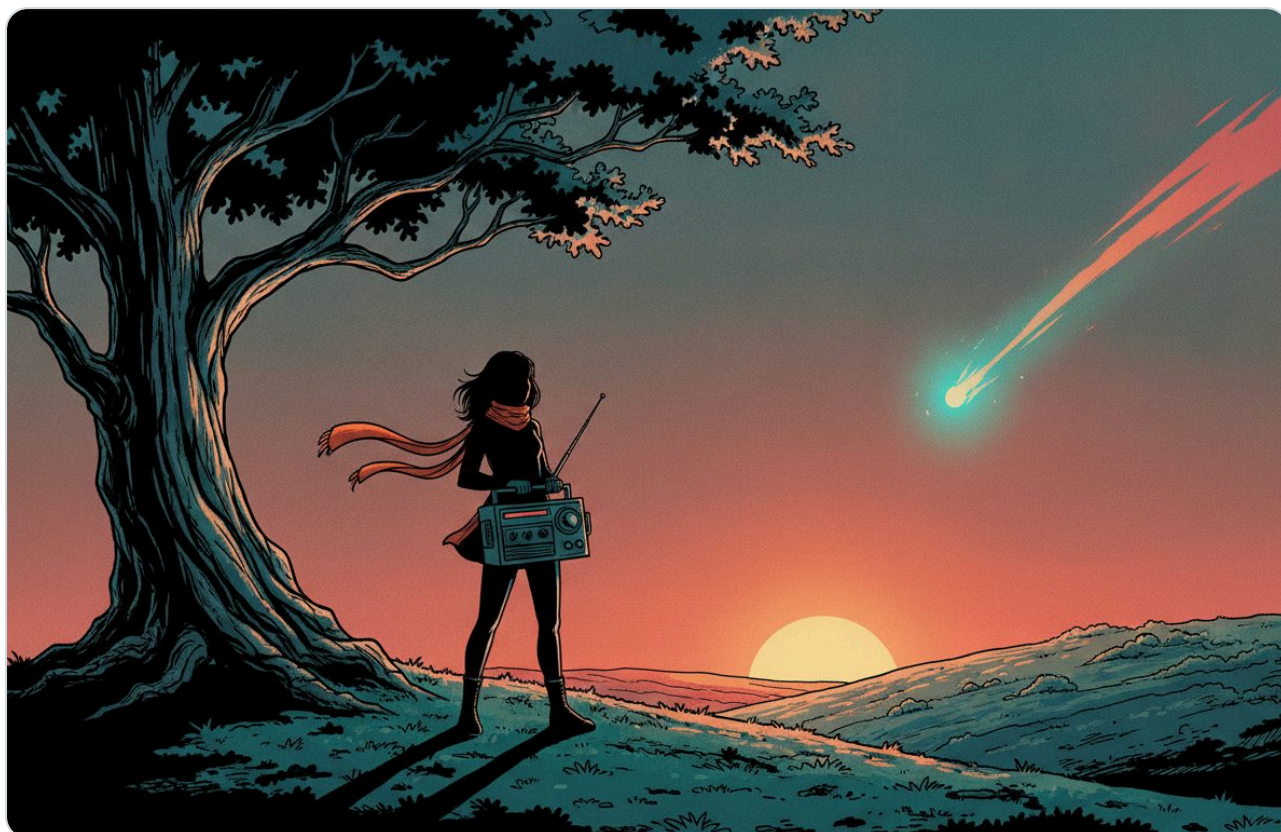

WAR. Humans, Rootborn, giants and Visitors against machine-humans and mechs.

Behind the mask, a human face. "I only wanted no more fear."
